Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Westfall were in Clovis one day last week.

Mildred Rork spent Friday night with Fay Marks.

Misses Ada Stahl, Susie Jones, Ina Works and J. L. Moore were at Clovis Sunday night attending church services.

Frio Facts

Say, we got a fine blanket of the beautiful last Saturday night and it was the kind of snow that makes lots of moisture and all of it is going into the ground. We certainly have a lot of moisture. Prospects for another bumper crop were never finer at the season.

Fay L. Davis, who has been working with the Fahsholtz thresher came in home last Friday night. He reports the boys are doing fine work and have enough threshing to keep them busy until wheat harvest. That is sure going some when a thresher is able to keep running the whole year.

John Moore and sister came from Clovis Friday afternoon.

Prof A. M. Singleterry was a Clovis visitor last Wednesday.

W. N. Bettis and T. A. Slater came in last week with a bunch of cattle. Cows are getting numerous in our part of the country now.

Willis Fahsholtz and sister, Bertha, attended meeting at Shiloh Sunday night.

We understand I. K. Brown, the Texico blacksmith, is going to move back onto his farm soon. All will be glad to see Ike and family in our midst again.

Our school directors are preparing to have two months more school which is made possible by the act of the legislature just passed. Don't tell us the law makers never pass any good laws for we know this is a good one.

Old Timer.

New Hope News

(New Hope is four miles northwest of Texico.)

This locality was visited by an all night's rain Friday, winding up with a snow storm, which left the ground in excellent condition for listing and insures a bumper crop for this year.

John Fly, who has been nursing a very sore hand, is now able to work again.

Grand mother Doolittle is slowly recovering from the effects of a fall, which she sustained sometime ago.

Mrs. Will Xander, who has been in poor health for some time, is improving at this writing.

George Calkins from St Louis, is visiting his brother, Frank Calkins and other relatives near here.

Mrs. C. H. Davis has been on the sick list for several weeks and is still poorly. We hope for a speedy recovery.

J. W. Pine, of Clovis, spent Tuesday night with Albert Means and family and took the early train for Amarillo Saturday morning.

Albert Doolittle lost a horse one day last week.

Earnest Herfurth, of Clovis, was visiting in this neighborhood Saturday and Sunday.

W. H. Holden's new windmill is completed and doing good work.

T. C. Tillotson and L. O. Fullen passed through Thursday en route to their homes in Roswell. Tillotson had been in Santa Fe and Fullen in Oklahoma.

The ladies of the Christian Church will soon have a cook book with favorite recipes contributed by Clovis ladies in it, on the market.

Railroad Locals

Glenn A. Huff and wife departed for Alva, Okla., Saturday for a few days visit with Mr. Huff's parents.

Brakeman, Walter Greenleaf has been transferred to Belen for service.

The family of general foreman, Muchmore, arrived a few days ago to take up their residence in Clovis. They will occupy the house recently vacated by Engineer Pryor on West Monroe street.

R. P. Stanford, who has been foreman of the coal chute here almost ever since it commenced dealing out dusky diamonds to engines, has resigned and will hereafter devote his time to farming.

Mrs. J. T. Pryor and daughter Lucille departed Tuesday for Lamesa, Texas, their future home. Mr. Pryor preceded them there several days ago, he having taken a run between that point and Slaton. We are sorry to lose this estimable family from our city and hope at some future date to have them locate with us again.

"Happy" Kiser and wife have returned to Clovis to reside after a residence of a year in Vaughn. Mr. Kiser is employed in the local yards as switchman.

On March 1st the special rates from eastern points to California go into effect and it is predicted that this will mark the beginning of the exposition travel. According to the Albuquerque Journal, beginning March 3 and ending March 12, twenty-five sections of the California limited will arrive there. Also a Raymond & Whitecomb special will arrive on the morning of March 6. The limiteds will arrive there as follows: March 3, seven sections; March 4, five sections; March 6, three sections; March 8, three sections; March 12, two sections. One section will arrive on days not mentioned between these dates. Not all the traffic by any means, will go through Albuquerque. Clovis, with its through train service between Kansas City and the coast, will have its share of visitors in the way of eastern tourists.

Musicale.

The New Mexico Conservatory of Music will give a recital and musicale in the Croft Conservatory building, corner Grand Avenue and Mitchell St. Monday and Tuesday nights March 1st and 2nd.

Monday night will be a class recital by the students, with orchestra and other entertaining features.

Tuesday night an entertaining program will be rendered by the Conservatory Orchestra interspersed with vocal solos by Mrs. Hendrix, of Farwell, Tex., Axel Osterholm and others, and readings by Miss Jewell Bayless. Monday night, admission will be free.

Tuesday night a small admission will be charged to defray incidental expenses seating of the hall etc.

The public is invited.

Bob Keyzer has purchased the K. C. Barber shop fixtures and moved them to Texico where there is no shop.

Baseball Dope.

The conditions under which last season's base ball games wound up, makes it most favorable for the coming season. Some $200 remains in the treasury. The base ball management is now co-operating with the Curry County Fair Association, with the intention of erecting a grand stand and laying out a ball park. The base ball management are firm in their contention of locating the ball park within walking distance, whereas the Fair management committee are favorable to a location some two miles distant.

The baseball fans look forward to seeking a strong team launched this year which will be second to none ever donning a Clovis uniform.

The Wallace brothers, who were popular players during the earlier days have returned and will be in the game this season, other favorite players have come in during the winter, so that there are two full teams reporting on the grounds for practise.

From last year's team Capt. Cline will again hold down the 3rd sack, Spalding, that formidable second baseman is again with us. Guy Griffin has a non itinerary job and will probably go out for the first sack. Catcher Herbert Brown will remain behind the bat; the Billingsley boys, who are the reliable stick artists are to be seen in uniform; Jean Sebastian and Monk Wallace will serve on the mound. The outfield will probably include "Brownie" Wallace Crawford and others. Nothing would seem to prevent Clovis from taking the penant of eastern New Mexico and Western Texas this year.

Mr. T. H. Sears, General Superintendent of the A. T. and S. F. Ry. Co., was in the city last week in the interest of the new schedule that went into effect Feb. 7. Mr. Sears said that the result of the new schedule was to center a number of trains at Clovis, N. M., at about the same time, but that it had caused no congestion. He also spoke about the results of the new service from the gulf coast country to the plains as being advantageous as it gave better connections with that section, and would be an advantage in shorter hours from the truck gardens and fish hatcheries of the Texas coast. The connections made with the Santa Fe out of New Orleans and the east will be over the N. O. T. & M., into Houston, forming a meeting point at the union depot with Santa Fe out of Galveston to the west. - Lubbock Avalanche.

The new Galveston train is a dandy. It carries new first class coaches and standard pullman. It will take some time to get this new route from the gulf coast to the Pacific coast fully advertised as the shortest and best route.

Excavation work started today on the new grain elevator, the contract for the grading having been let to Tom Reagan. The representative of the constructing house arrived today to superintend the work.

Rain or shine, the old reliable Lyceum draws the crowd. It speaks volumes for the management to maintain the high standard of this popular theatre.
